

Augusta Estate Planning Council

Post Office Box 1477
Augusta, Georgia 30903

Tuesday, June 14, 2022

Please join us at our next educational and networking meeting! Economic forecasting has become a very hot topic lately. There is certainly no shortage of commentary on the national and international landscape, but what about locally? Come hear for yourself and maybe get a question or two answered.

Wednesday, June 22nd
CSRA Economy – Past, Present and Future
Dr. Simon Medcalfe

Simon Medcalfe has been a professor at Augusta University since 2008 where he has taught a variety of economics and finance courses. He received his PhD in economics from Lehigh University in Pennsylvania and also holds a Masters in Finance degree from the University of Leicester (*pronounced Lester) in England. His research interests include the impact of residential racial segregation on health outcomes and measuring economic well-being in counties and metro areas. He writes a weekly column on all things economics in Augusta Business Daily.

Noon – 1:00 pm
Snelling Center
3165 Washington Road
